Request for Information

Federal Law requires withholding 28% from payments made to reportable vendors for which we have no taxpayer identification number (TIN) on file. A TIN can be either a Social Security number (SSN) or an employee identification number (EIN). This withholding requirement generally applies to service payments reported on Form 1099MISC.

Currently, we do not have your TIN on file. To assist in complying with the law and to avoid the withholding of tax or a delay in payment of your invoice(s), please complete the enclosed W-9 Request for Taxpayer Identification Number and Certification (no substitute W-9 will be accepted).
